CC&L FINANCIAL GROUP FEATURED IN ASSET TV MASTERCLASS ON LIQUID ALTS

TORONTO, APRIL 17, 2019

Connor, Clark & Lunn Financial Group (CC&L Financial Group) participated in an episode of Asset TV's Masterclass on liquid alternatives. Lindsay Holtz, Managing Director, CC&L Financial Group was featured in the panel discussion along with David Picton, Picton Mahoney Asset Management and Brooks Ritchey, Franklin Templeton. Moderated by Clare O'Hara from The Global and Mail, the discussion explored liquid alternatives and what the recent introduction these new investment options mean for Canadian advisors and their clients.

On February 21, 2019, Connor, Clark & Lunn Funds Inc. (CC&L Funds) announced the launch of three alternative mutual funds, including:

- CC&L Alternative Income Fund
- CC&L Alternative Canadian Equity Fund
- CC&L Alternative Global Equity Fund

The portfolio manager for each of the three new funds is CC&L Investment Management Ltd. (CC&L Investment Management), one of the largest managers of alternative investments in Canada. CC&L Investment Management has managed these types of strategies, primarily for institutional investors, for the last 15 years and currently manages over $5 billion of alternative investments.
